Evaluating Your Offer Letter

- Review your offer letter carefully.
- Refer to the Navigating the Offer Letter and Estimated Net Cost sheet for more information.
- Your offer letter is NOT a bill. Actual direct costs will be based on your room and meal plan choice, if applicable.

Financial Aid Steps

- Access all steps on your Self-Service account under the checklist section.
- All financial aid steps must be completed no later than May 1, 2023 or the due date shown on your Self-Service account.
- Steps completed after the requested due date may cause delays in processing your financial aid and result in late fees.
- Paper documents can be uploaded using the secure portal at aurora.edu/submitfinaidforms.
- Do not provide items that have not been requested as we are required to verify every document you submit.

Self-Service • The Online Portal for Aurora University Students

- All financial aid correspondence is communicated to the student through AU email, phone, text, and Self-Service.
- All students receive a User ID and password for their Aurora University email and Self-Service account.
- Use Self-Service to:
 - Check the status of requested documents.
 - Review financial aid steps to complete.
 - View offer letter and accept and decline loans.

Outside Funding Resources

Outside Scholarships

- Scholarships can be awarded by any outside agency.
- On your Self-Service account, notify the Office of Financial Aid of any outside scholarships you are receiving.
- Advise the scholarship agency to send payment(s) to the attention of Student Accounts.
- Funds received will be credited to your student account.
- Check our “Additional Resources” page at aurora.edu/finaidresources to research scholarship opportunities.

Veteran Benefits

- The Office of Financial Aid is the certifying office.
- Determine your eligibility by contacting the Department of Veteran Affairs (VA).
- Benefit information can be found at gibill.va.gov.

Additional Lending Options

- Federal Direct PLUS Loans - a credit-based federal loan option. Find the electronic application at studentaid.gov/plus-app.
 - The Parent PLUS Loan is an option for parents of dependent, undergraduate students.
 - The Graduate PLUS Loan is an option for students enrolled in graduate programs.
- Private Loan - loan outside of Aurora University through a private lender of choice, according to their unique terms.

Loan Disbursement Schedules at Aurora University

- Loan disbursement dates have been predetermined by Aurora University based on your enrollment.
- Check your loan disclosure statement from the U.S. Department of Education for loan disbursement information.
- The Student Accounts Office sends notifications of disbursement and refund activity to your AU email.

Federal & State Financial Aid Eligibility Limits

- Due to government limits and Satisfactory Academic Progress regulations, it is in the students' best interest to complete their academic program as efficiently as able. Refer to the Satisfactory Academic Progress policy at aurora.edu/satisfactoryacademicprogress.
- Limits for grants and loans include all aid received at all schools attended during the student's educational career.
- Students who have already completed a bachelor's or graduate degree are only eligible for student loans.
- The total Federal Pell Grant a student may receive cannot exceed the equivalent of 6 school years, or 600%, of full-time attendance. Review your usage on the Financial Aid homepage of your Self-Service account.
- Students become ineligible for the State of IL MAP Grant (Est) when they have used a total of 135 MAP Paid Credit Hours.
- Federal Direct Stafford Loan lifetime limits:

Dependent Undergraduate Limit	$31,000 (no more than $23,000 in subsidized)
Independent Undergraduate Limit	$57,500 (no more than $23,000 in subsidized)
Graduate and Professional Limit	$138,500 (ineligible for subsidized loans post undergrad)

- Manage all federal loans through studentaid.gov.
 - Assigned servicer
 - Loan amounts
 - Lifetime usage totals (limits)
 - Interest rates
 - Repayment status

Summer Financial Aid

- Summer aid requires a separate institutional application in addition to the FAFSA for the applicable academic year.
- Applications for summer are available beginning in December at aurora.edu/financialaidforms.
- If eligible for financial aid, you will receive an offer letter. You will also be notified if you are ineligible for aid during the summer term.
