

FINANCIAL AID FOR GRADUATE STUDENTS STARTING SPRING 2024

Step 1: File/Update FAFSAs

The 23-24 FAFSA is used for the Spring 2024 and Summer 2024 semesters, whereas the 24-25 FAFSA is used for the upcoming fall and following spring and summer semesters.

You may file the 24-25 FAFSA beginning in December 2023.

If you have already filed the 23-24 FAFSA as an undergraduate student, update the questions listed below and submit the updated FAFSA on November 1, 2023.

FAFSA Section	FAFSA Question	FAFSA Answer
Student Demographics	What will your grade level be when you begin the 2023-2024 school year?	1 st year graduate/professional
Student Demographics	What degree or certificate will you be working on when you begin the 2023-2024 school year?	Graduate or professional degree
Dependency Status	At the beginning of the 2023-2024 school year, will you be working on a master's or doctorate program (such as an MA, MBA, MD, JD, PhD, EdD, graduate certificate, etc.)?	Yes

Step 2: Submit Summer Aid Application

Summer Aid Applications are available beginning in December (S1 at aurora.edu/forms2023).

Step 3: Complete Required Paperwork

Submit requested items listed in "Required Documents" on your Self-Service account. Check Self-Service to view your offer letters under "Offer Letter," when notified via AU email. Make sure to complete requests for ALL fall/ spring and summer semesters attending.

Financial Aid Eligibility

- No grants available
- Annual Federal Direct Unsubsidized Loan Limit is $20,500
 - If you borrowed $5,000 as an undergraduate student during the fall semester, you could have up to $15,500 left for the following spring and summer semesters ($20,500 - $5,000 = $15,500) depending on your Cost of Attendance
- If additional aid is needed, you can apply for the Graduate PLUS Loan, which is based on credit, at studentaid.gov or inquire with the Office of Financial Aid for other options
